

The Institute of Archaeology, Research Centre for the Humanities, Hungarian Academy of Sciences and the Romano-Germanic Commission of the German Archaeological Institute invites You to the conference

The Alsónyék story: towards the history of a persistent place
The 6.-5. millenium BC in the Sárköz in southern Hungary -
Results of The Times of Their Lives project

Date and place of the conference

22 November 2016, Research Centre for the Humanities, HAS, Jakobinus Room, Országház str. 30, 1014 Budapest

Conference Program

- 10³⁰ Opening address : Elek Benkő, director of the Institute of Archaeology, RCH, HAS Opening address: Eszter Bánffy, director of the Romano-Germanic Commission, DAI
- 10⁴⁰ Alasdair Whittle: Creating histories for the European Neolithic
- 11⁰⁵ Alex Bayliss: An introduction to Radiocarbon Dating and Bayesian Chronological Modelling at Alsónyék
- 11⁵⁰ Anett Osztás: The Alsónyék-Bátaszék complex in the Neolithic
- 12¹⁵ Tibor Marton: The chain of transformations in the materiality of Neolithic Alsónyék: pottery styles before the Lengyel culture
- 12⁴⁰ Krisztián Oross: Radiocarbon dating programmes for the Starčevo, LBK and Sopot occupations at Alsónyék
- Lunch break
- 14¹⁵ Anett Osztás: The settlement and burial groups of the Lengyel occupation
- 14⁴⁰ Alex Bayliss: From Chronicle to Narrative: mathematical approaches for tackling the questions archaeologists really want to ask
- 15⁰⁵ Eszter Bánffy: Alsónyék, a persistent place (Discussion)
- 15³⁰ General discussion with the participation of Eva Lenneis, Wolfram Schier and Florin Draşovean